

ROB HUTTEN is a singer/songwriter and revivalist of blues, country, and folk music from the 1900s to 1950s — “North Americana” is what he likes to call it.

He performs solo, as a duo with long-time musical partner Costas Halavrezos (bass), and as front-man with new good-time roots trio Three-Point Hitch with Costas and Alan Saunders (drums).

Rob’s 2022 album Sketchy is available on all streaming platforms. Produced by Jeff Gay and recorded by industry stalwart Charles Austin, it features 14 original songs about characters on the edges of society.

Two new albums are in the works: Old Boy, a collection of new originals; and 1928, reworkings of blues & folk songs from that year.

2023 Highlights:

- 11 nights at Bearly’s (Halifax) with Jeff Gay
- 2 Friday nights at Union Street Café (Berwick), including a SOLD-OUT show in August
- 5 nights at Whiskey’s Lounge (Dartmouth)
- Split show at New Scotland Brewing (Dartmouth). Solo and with Three-Point Hitch
- 2 songwriter circles performances hosted by Jeff Gay at Gus’s Pub (Halifax)

Listen:

<https://open.spotify.com/playlist/2ioI0Csq9Vhtzm-Ji9sHfdA?si=83fde397e9ea421d>

Rob frequently posts on his social media channels:

<https://www.instagram.com/huttenrob/>

<https://www.youtube.com/robhutten/>

Contact:

email: rob@hutten.org web: robhutten.com